

Checklist Changing a Sex Marker on an Ohio Birth Record

The Probate Court may issue an order to change the sex marker on an Ohio birth record pursuant to the decision in Ray v. McCloud, S.D. Ohio No. 2:18-cv-00272, 2020 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 247732 (Dec. 16, 2020). All applications to change a sex marker filed in Greene County Probate Court will not be placed online, and shall have restricted access pursuant to Sup. R. 45(E).

The process for changing a sex marker on a birth record is not a process to change a legal name or make any other change, alteration or correction to the birth record. Any requests for change of name or correction of other errors on a birth record must comply with the established legal processes for each action.
