

Our Family Wizard:

The parties are ORDERED to visit the Ourfamilywizard.com website, take the tour by clicking on the “Families” tab on the main page, and each establish a parent account to utilize the tools listed in the “Services” tab. Each party is ORDERED to enroll in the program for a one-year subscription not later than 30 days from this order. Each party shall enroll in the program for a one-year subscription, including the tone meter. Neither party shall fail to renew the annual subscription to the website without a signed and filed stipulation or a Court order. The parties shall thereafter conduct all communications regarding parenting matters, information sharing, schedule alterations and reimbursable expenses matters on the website, and shall not e-mail each other directly regarding issues relating to a child, but shall post all communication exclusively on the website. Once the parties enroll in the web service, they shall not communicate by telephone except regarding matters of an emergency nature regarding a child that must be acted upon in less than 24 hours.

Both parties shall use the website as a convenient program for registering all communications regarding the child, including posting of data for reimbursable support related expenses, scheduling affecting the custodial arrangements and special activities for the child, medical treatments and so forth. Telephone conversations between the parties, if necessary, shall be kept brief and to the point regarding the child. The parties shall not engage in argument using degrading terms about one another or other members of their families or households. Either party has the right to terminate such a telephone conversation if s/he feels that the language the other is using is abusive. If a conversation is terminated by a party, neither party shall call the other back in less than 24 hours barring an emergency regarding the child that must be acted upon in less than 24 hours.

Both parties shall download the OFW app to their telephones and enable push notifications. The parties shall review the OFW website no less than once every 48 hours. Each party shall respond to the other’s request or notification or push notifications within 48 hours if a response is required. A party’s failure to respond within such time period without requesting an extension of time to obtain further with which to reply, including, but not limited to seeking legal counsel or independent medical advice, shall be deemed a consent or a waiver, as the case may be, of the action, activity, period, or decision requested or offered. The parties shall consider and discuss establishing a child’s page. Mother/Father shall complete the calendar of children’s extracurricular and school activities within 7 days of receiving the child’s schedule.

The court orders the parties to utilize the Information Bank, MyFiles and Expense Log tools on the website to have a future record of all potentially reimbursable expenses in order to mitigate the necessity to litigate in the future over such matters. If a parent does not have the capability of scanning a required document and attaching the electronic version for posting to the website, s/he shall post a description of the document on the website and mail a hard copy of the document by regular first class mail on the day following the posting of the electronic announcement. Each parent shall preserve the original of any scanned document that is posted.
