Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Cheri Stout Appointed as Civil Division Chief

Xenia, OH – Longtime Greene County Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Cheri L. Stout has been named the Chief of the Civil Division of the Greene County Prosecutor’s Office. Greene County Prosecuting Attorney David D. Hayes announced the appointment today.

The Civil Division acts as the legal advisor to elected officials throughout Greene County. This includes all County-wide officeholders, their respective subdivisions, and eleven of the townships located in the county. A lifelong Buckeye, Cheri attended Buckeye Valley High School (Class of 1993), and went on to obtain three degrees from The Ohio State University: a Bachelor of Science in Sociology in 1997, a Masters in Elementary Education in 1998, and a Juris Doctorate from Moritz College of Law in 2001.

Cheri began her career with the Greene County Prosecutor’s Office in June of 2002. Cheri has represented the State of Ohio in the Child Support Enforcement Division, as well as representing Children Services. In addition, Cheri Stout was assigned to the Juvenile Court docket and the Appellate Division before she was assigned to prosecute adult felony offenders in 2008. Cheri began working in the Civil Division in January of 2021.

“Cheri is the right person to lead the Civil Division”, said Greene County Prosecutor David D. Hayes. “She is smart, tough, and dedicated to providing the best legal services to our clients. She has demonstrated her commitment to Greene County and that commitment shines through in everything that she does.”
