Xenia Man Sentenced for Child Sexual Assault

Xenia, OH – Timothy L. Hagler, age 25, of Xenia, was sentenced to 15 years to life in prison for “Rape of a child under 10” on August 15, 2022. Greene County Prosecuting Attorney David D. Hayes announced the sentence handed down by Judge Adolfo A. Tornichio in Greene County Common Pleas Court.

Per court documents, between 2017 and 2021, Hagler was present with a minor child on several occasions while Hagler’s family babysat the child in a Xenia home. Hagler sexually assaulted the child repeatedly during that timeframe, which ended in 2021 when the child no longer visited the home. The child later disclosed the abuse in October 2021, and a Xenia Police Division detective ultimately interviewed Hagler about the assault. Hagler admitted sexually assaulting the child, and that it happened “too many times to count.” Hagler was subsequently arrested and indicted for rape offenses after the interview.

Hagler entered a guilty plea on August 11, 2022. Based on the offense, Hagler must serve a minimum term of at least 15 years up to life in prison, and he will be a Tier III sexual offender with lifetime registration requirements if paroled at any point.

“Chief Trial Counsel Andrew Hunt and Victim Advocate Riki Karolyi worked very hard on seeing that justice was done in this case, while at the same time sparing a child victim from having to testify in court,” said Greene County Prosecutor David Hayes. “This result also would not have been possible without the exceptional skill of Detective Brian Atkins of the Xenia Police Division. All that being said, however, it is the victim’s courage in coming forward that has put Timothy Hagler behind bars.”
